

The Society's General Applications Section invites you to attend

CENSUS: 2011 and beyond

Wednesday 21 October 2009

(1400-1700 hrs)

RSS, 12 Errol St, London EC1Y 8LX

PROGRAMME

1400	Professor Tim Holt CB Formerly Professor of Social Statistics, University of Southampton and Head of the Government Statistical Services and the Office for National Statistics	Chair's welcome
1405	Professor David Martin School of Geography, University of Southampton	How did we get here? An overview of recent census developments leading up to an overview of plans for 2011.
1440	Neil Storer Culture and Environment Directorate, London Borough of Camden	How is the census actually used: how has it contributed to policy making at national and local levels over the past 10 years?
1515	Jil Matheson National Statistician	The future of the census after 2011 and changes which may be considered in the arrangements for the gathering of information.
1550	Refreshments
1615	Qs and As	Open floor debate with panel of speakers.
1700	Meeting closes

To attend this free event, please book your place via the Royal Statistical Society events page at <http://www.rss.org.uk/events>

For further information contact: Debra Hurcomb via e-mail: d.hurcomb@rss.org.uk/Tel: 020 7614 3934